McDONALDS GRAFTON TO INVERELL ON THE WAY

The 2011 McDonalds Grafton to Inverell Cycle Classic is a little over two months away.

Race Director:

Scott Sunderland

On the back of last year's historic 50th event with a record-breaking contingent of starters, the organising committee is looking forward to hosting riders from many parts of eastern Australia again on Saturday the 22nd of October.

Event Managers:

Paddy Miller

Event Manager Paddy Miller has launched the call for entries with the announcement that Chris and Julianne Rogers of McDonalds Inverell will be the major sponsor for the fourth successive year.

The McDonalds Mens Divisions will feature Elite, B and C Grades commencing in Grafton and heading across the Gibraltar and Waterloo Ranges via Glen Innes to Inverell, a distance of 228 kilometres.

HEINRICH HAUSSLER

The Celtic Country Classic de Femme Ladies Elite competitors will again start in Glen Innes, take in the farmland of Red Range and then head west to Inverell via the Elsmore loop.

The Ladies B-Grade field will race directly from Glen Innes to Inverell.

Minimum overall prizemoney of $20,000 is being offered.

CLASSIC de FEMME

Former International star Scott Sunderland has returned to his home town of Inverell and has accepted the role of Race Director of the Mens sections, and experienced race official Robert Munday will have control of the Ladies Divisions.

Entries and details are available at www.nsw.cycling.org.au
